Between the entrees you have selected, enough product will be prepared to feed the number of people attending your event. For instance, if you have 150 people and choose 2 entrees, an equal portion of the 2 meats will be prepared to feed 150. We will not prepare 150 pieces of each meat. If you run out of a particular meat and you request more, an additional fee will be charged to your account, and a substitution may be prepared so the entrée can be served in a timely manner. You may choose to order extra servings of meat only for an additional $2 per serving price to allow your guests extra servings. This order must be placed in advance, not day of event.)
