

Granny's Old Fashioned Blue Ribbon Contest

Registration and Regulations Form

1. For each entry you submit, you must provide enough for the judge's taste Testing. Eating Utensils will be provided.
2. For each entry you submit, a list of ingredients MUST be supplied and posted. We will not ask you to post the specific amounts or recipe, but a list of ingredients is required to be visible for all whom may have food allergies.
3. There will be three different categories available to enter, each category will have it's own prizes which may or may not be identical to every other category. Categories available for entrance are as follows: 1. Cakes; 2. Pies; 3. Jams, Jellies, Relishes(Jar goods). Your submissions will be judged on Taste(general flavor) and appearance.
4. If you enter the Jar goods category, your contest entries are expected to be in a clear, canning Jar, with the Seal Intact on the day of the Contest.
5. Entry Fees are $5.00 per entry. You are allowed multiples of each entry to ensure there is enough of each entry for taste testing. For Instance: You may bring multiple jars of the same apple jelly for taste testing, But if you wish for your grape jelly to be entered into the contest and judged, you will pay an additional $5.00 submission fee.

For more information on the contest, please contact Mary either by Email: Cheaha.event@dcnr.Alabama.gov or at 1-256-488-5115.

If you would like to set up a booth where you can sell your jellies, jams, relishes, cakes, or pies at the Annual Mountain Festival which will be going on the same weekend, please contact: Bobbie Steed (256) 354-2649 for more information.
