Campfire Talk: Traditional Southern Cooking

Join us for a fun campfire talk in the Great Outdoors!

Campfire Talks are a series of educational & entertaining programs located in the great outdoors. Campfire programs are held many Friday & Saturday evening (May – October) in DeSoto State Park.

There's just something about Southern food. As cliché as it may sound, there's an innate sense of character and soul to it. Authentic Southern cooking is as diverse and multicultural as the regions in the South and the families who live there. Southern cooks have always creatively drawn upon the mix of cultures that compose the South, starting with Native Americans, Europeans and Africans.

Come help food enthusiast (he likes to eat) Dr. Kelly Gregg in an exploration of the "Where?", "When?", "Who?" and "What?" of Southern Cooking. Bring your ideas and opinions and together we'll have some fun talking about what makes "real" Southern Food.

Seating is limited, so bring your own comfortable camp chair if you wish.

Mentone Home Tour & Silent Auction

Hosted by Little River Arts Council

The tour showcases the community's natural beauty, while promoting local artists and highlighting the wide variety of architectural styles on Lookout Mountain. Artists will be set up at many of the houses with displays and items for sale.

Funds raised from the sale of tour wristbands and the concurrent silent auction allow the Arts Council to fund community art activities throughout the year, including the Summer Music for the People series, the Creative Spirit Market in November, and the Linger Longer Pop-Up Art Series. While buying your wristband, check out the silent auction of artwork by local artists and other donated items.

Outdoor Classroom

With Seven Pines Survival

All ages and for the whole family, this is an outdoor adventure with learning, exploration, skills, and good fun outside. You can expect spending the day outside participating with nature and getting a chance to learn from the natural world and what it has to teach. You will learn hands-on skills to help you understand and inhabit the natural world around you. Meet other families with the same interests, share skills and stories, children will get to make new friends, learn important social skills, play outside, play games that encourage learning and using their senses as well with teamwork and communication skills. Parents will have a chance to meet and learn from other parents, learn how to do outdoor activities in a safe and productive way, and have the opportunity to pass on what they know to not only their kids but other families.

This event is organized by Seven Pines Survival with your teacher Robert Wilson “The Traveling Herbalist” which has been teaching outdoor, hands on and environmentally friendly educational skills to kids and families since 2014. Our practice with outdoor education and hands on teaching have led to a good partnership with multiple State Parks, Youth Organizations, schools, and other non-profits.
